

Project Plan

Campus Clean Up

Topic:

A campus wide trash clean up conducted by anyone interested.

Rational:

At a general meeting we brainstormed ideas in the 'Decide' phase of the model. Trash around campus was chosen because it is a tangible and relatively easy to plan event which will make for a great bonding experience

Project E-Board/Committee:

- Owen Manahan
- Mitchell Asante
- Pj Pfeiffer
- Lily Rosa
- Donna Osgood
- Lili Klayman
- Max Fontes
- Fiona Greenough
- Sahaja Surapaneni
- Nghia Nguyen

Goals:

- Clean up trash around campus
- Bring attention to the quantity of trash and pollution around campus
- Bring together students to engage in the clean up (target of 45 individuals)
 - Flyers- a fact about how trash clean up affects your health
 - Social Media- general information about how trash clean up affects your health
 - Meet with head of other clubs and see if they're interested
 - Greek Life?
 - Announce at Basketball Games?

Objectives:

- Physically pick up the trash by walking around heavily polluted areas
- Spread flyers around campus that explain and highlight the clean up
 - Greek life
 - Sports games
 - Residence halls
 - Word to mouth
 - Social media

- Work with related clubs to achieve maximum turnout

Timeframe:

- Project Began: 2/4/19
- Project Will Take Place: 2/23/19 at 12:00 p.m. - roughly 2:00 p.m.

Implementation:

- All participating individuals will meet at the Airport Lounge in the Memorial Union around noon
- We will divide the group (however large) into four sections assigned to specific zones:
 - Section 1 will clean up around the Keeney lot area
 - Section 2 will clean up around the Ryan Center and Flagg Lot
 - Section 3 will clean up around the center of campus (Mainfare and the Quad)
 - Section 4 will clean up around upper college road with focus around the Emporium
- Each group is lead by an e-board/committee member
- Each group will receive plastic gloves, trash bags, and recycling bags
- After receiving materials, each group will go to their zone and do the clean up
 - One or two committee member/e-board member in each group
- After approx. two hours we will meet at the dumpster behind the Memorial Union and recycle/throw away the trash
